

As an employee of the telephone industry when the breakup occurred in the early 1980's I saw $ 20.00 items turn into $ 80.00 and 100.00 dollar items just because it had an FCC approved stamp on it and nothing had been changed on the item. I see no reason for the FCC to become involved with the Recording Industry's petty squabbles. Thank You